

Tasmanian Health Conference

Our health: What does the future hold?

DATE Saturday 4 August 2018

VENUE Medical Science Precinct, University of Tasmania
(Menzies Institute for Medical Research, Building 1, 17 Liverpool Street Hobart)

8.30am

Registration open
Collect your name badge and satchel

Barista open

HOBART PATHOLOGY
LAUNCESTON PATHOLOGY
NORTH WEST
PATHOLOGY
Quality is in our DNA

9.00am

Welcome to Country

Raylene Foster
National Aboriginal Community Control Health Organisation (NACCHO) Director for Tasmania / Aboriginal Health Service Manager

9.05am

Welcome

Dr John Davis, President AMA Tasmania

9.15am

Today's MC

Penny Terry, Healthy Tasmania Pty Ltd

HEALTHY
TASMANIA

9.20am

“The best of times, the worst of times, the age of wisdom, the age of foolishness ... the digital age!”

Daniel Sih, Spacemakers

Supported by primary health

TASMANIA

phn
TASMANIA
An Australian Government Initiative

9.40am

Digital health

Navigating health apps with the Digital Health Guide
Russell Bowden, Primary Health Tasmania

	Healthcare in Remote and Extreme Environments: Australia's Antarctic Program Dr Jeff Ayton, Australian Antarctic Division
	Healthy Kids Toolkit – communicating to the next generation Alison Ward, Department of Health
10.30am	Morning refreshments
11.00am	Digital health continued
	Smart Asthma: How technology will transform care Debra Banks, Asthma Foundation of Tasmania
	Social Media and Public Health: The Shock Verdict National CPR Campaign Timothy Kariotis, University of Tasmania, College of Health and Medicine and Royal Hobart Hospital, Department of Cardiology
11.30am	Technology: Friend or foe or frustration? Panel: Dr John Batten, National President, Royal Australasian College of Surgeons Dr Shane Jackson, National President, Pharmaceutical Society of Australia Andrew Hogan, National President, Optometry Australia A/Prof Jennifer Presser, Chair, RACGP Tasmania Kate Griggs (patient's advocate)
12.30pm	“Dis-connect and re-connect – how to unplug, unwind and think clearly in the digital age.” Daniel Sih, Spacemakers Supported by   <small>An Australian Government Initiative</small>
1.00pm	Lunch
2.00pm	Health system	Health care
	Healthy people, healthy systems. Strategies for outcomes-focused and value-based healthcare Kylie Woolcock, Australian Healthcare and Hospitals Association	The future of palliative care in Tasmania and how we can collaborate to embed good palliative practices across the system and community Sharon King, Palliative Care Tasmania
	A Healthy Tasmania is Everyone's Business Yvette Hufschmidt, DHHS	Planning for the Future: Audiology and Preventative Care Clare Combey, Australian Hearing

	Systems Thinking: A new approach to solving complex problems in health Michelle Morgan, Tasmanian Department of Health	Genomic Screening for Preventable Blinding Diseases Prof Alex Hewitt, University of Tasmania
	Taking the poison out of the water in the well? "Safewards" – an antidote for Mental Health Units Russell James, Tasmanian Health Service	Our Oral Health: What Does the Future Hold? A/Prof Leonard Crocombe and Silvana Bettiol, Centre for Rural Health, University of Tasmania
	From pedal power to patient empowerment Nicole Grose, Royal Flying Doctor Service	Neurology Services in Tasmania - 'The Good, the Bad and the Ugly' Panel discussion from the perspective of Neurological Alliance Tasmania
	The Place of Primary Care Short Stay Units in the Future Tasmanian Health System Dr John Davis, AMA Tasmania	Deborah Byrne, Jen Lowe, Wendy Groot Neurological Alliance Tasmania, Brain Injury Association of Tasmania, Epilepsy Tasmania, Multiple Sclerosis Limited
3.45pm	Afternoon refreshments
4.15pm	What does the research tell us? Quick-fire snapshots from our future health workforce
	Older people's participation in peer-run groups builds positive health outcomes Rowena Mackean, University of Tasmania
	How to keep older adults active: Technology versus Human Interaction Katie-Jane Brickwood, University of Tasmania
	Perception of social support in individuals living with a diabetic foot: A qualitative study with implications for health professionals Joshua Palaya, Tasmanian Health Service
	Antimicrobial stewardship-practices and perceptions of Australian community pharmacists Tasneem Rizvi, University of Tasmania
	Maternal morbidities and mothers help-seeking behaviours within the first twelve-months after childbirth: a qualitative synthesis Maryam Rouhi, University of Tasmania
	Ecology and Control of Vector-Borne Disease Dynamics Across Australia Iain Koolhof, University of Tasmania
4.45pm	Politicians in response

5.15pm	Conference close
5.30pm	Network and Nibbles

Please don't hesitate to get in touch with any questions.

Journalists wishing to attend the Conference to interview doctors and other speakers should liaise with:

Tony Steven: ceo@amatas.com.au or 0409219368

The Twitter hashtags for the Conference are:

#OURHEALTH #whatdoesthefuturehold
#thc2018